Sent	21 Oct 2024 5:03:01 am	Well no sleep as you will hear see and read Also the frequency hasn't stopped since about 11 pm last night after I stopped listening to my music as I was going to go to sleep But it is what it is and will be what it will be It's not permanent so not long now 4 years now over it Just want a clear mind clear thoughts clear decision making The voices stopped and the frequency to both my ears stopped to It's unfair unjustified in there actions and what they are doing and have done as well When I've done nothing wrong at all They're in control susspinesly Fuck knows how they come up with that idea Because they're not At all There mind games and the way they act and the stuff they say and are putting me through and making me do Is fucking disgusting and mentally fucked alright So this is how they manage there power hungry thoughts and also by keeping me up with a high pitch frequency in both ears I begged them to let me sleep But they he she the trannies would always say something to get a reaction They don't see a problem with themselves and their doings and keeping me up all night They take no responsibility for there actions or have any duty of care for anyone but themselves They get a reaction alright and I wonder why Narcissist behaviour They put 2 chips in me and think what they've done is ok by there standards not just to me but my daughter my family and friends They are mentally disturbed in the head and think and say the most horrible disgusting thing's and now are using dirty tactics by keeping me up knowing I've got work and also knowing I didn't plead guilty at my court appearance and also I'm going to see a phycologist and beg for help and ask him to write out a report and also to help me speak to my dr about it here in byford Mental torture anyway you look it try and figure it out and understand there actions and behaviour with everything they've said and made me do and put me through There's no reason behind it at all or even any understanding why and how anyone in there right frame of mind could do that to any person for this amount of time They're very much delinquent officers with no regards in the law or the judges in making there decisions upto this date

Sent	12 Oct 2024 4:08:49 am	Haha haha haha haha haha haha now I'm hearing what about summer conroy Um I said you tell me what about my daughter and why is my daughter of any of your business I would hate to see or hear what these pigs do with there kids Just retards What about the first micro tracking chip and brainwashing me at my house and then Nathan's for I'm guessing about a month What about Nath lieing and what about me having a breakdown and driving across the hole of Australia because you dumb delinquent cunts fucking chipped me What about me flying over back to NZ and trying to understand what had just happened in Perth Now you also were listening to me call up a counsellor in Qld hinterlands and after the phone call you said haha haha haha josh thinks he's going to be a counsellor Now what about at ash and Nina's house hearing and I mean hearing Matthew tamahena Kylie Edwards Nathan gudselle Bronwyn gudselle Talia haybittle Shane haybittle Nina and ash and also some pigs voice I'm taking it Because I was hearing go back to your wife and daughter bro your a good man just come back We don't care if you were drink driving Etc etc etc And then I think that only went on for 1-2 nights then the boarders closed because of the so called coronavirus Also I would sit outside ash's house at the back and would just quietly very quietly hear he's a hard cunt now and then Also they had bugged my cellphone aswell I encrypted it at Nathan's house where I got this message back from Rebecca as I had downloaded the line app just as she had done Finished the phone call with my daughter and got a strange txt back on my phone Not knowing at the time it had been bugged and myself also I actually opened up all the messages on my phone
Sent	12 Oct 2024 3:54:14 am	Now I'm hearing your Skitzo because of what you said to Rebecca Actually you fucking retarrd cunts Nathan Edwards and Scotty dewar were in my ear just as Morgan Spencer was just as Michelle conroy was just as summer conroy was And when your carrying on in my ear canal for fucking hours and you've got me asking Nath if he was talking to Rebecca and he lied now I no why Also on that night or one of the nights I asked Nath to write it down on paper if he could not say anything now I totally understand also one morning on leaving naths house I asked him could you hear Rebecca laughing as I was watching Allan Watts and you the smart ones the intelligent ones were over riding me the hole time.now on driving down Kwinana freeway I hear he's not bad is he.now as I had leant Scotty my car previous I thought he had implanted a device through my car stereo some how.now on that morning of getting back to my place I laid on my bed in my room and all I could hear was Charlotte and Rebecca speaking Some where along the lines as go inside you'll be alright and Rebecca well I thought was Rebecca now I no it's been the pigs the hole time Saying just knock on the door you'll be ok Now it didn't stop I was thinking how the fuck does Charlotte no Rebecca and how does Rebecca no where I live The voices were never ending so I punched my fists through my mirror But before I did that I actually opened my front door to see if Rebecca and Charlotte was there Now all of a sudden the voices stopped just like they can do and have at any given time So I had a drs visit that week I think not actually to sure But I mentioned to my dr I could hear Rebecca and Charlotte in my ear drums He sought of sat back in his chair and gave me a weird look Um I just said what I had heard and how I opened the door to see if anyone was out there Then they pigs stopped talking Now well actually not now I new back then when I was getting back from uber driving I could quietly hear my friends voices and Becs so I would leave my tv going to obviously over power the voices of frequencies Also when I was at Nathan's living there the night I heard him on the phone to reb for 3-4 hours I actually had ear phones in my ears Anyway they keep telling me to leave Rebecca alone which I have done so don't understand There reasons behind that And also um Im fucking sick and tired of been tracked everywhere I go everyone I talk to um my personal life has been absolutely stolen from me as has everything else When does it end I'm guessing we'll knowing it will be when I see a phycologist and he listens to my writings and everything I have to say I have no respect for my X wife or any gutless pig sitting behind a computer chair doing what the boy is doing I mean fuck don't they have a life is there life that boring and terrible they involve everything around me now
